

Child exploitation could be happening here

Know how to spot the signs

A young person who looks concerned or frightened while travelling with someone else.

Young people being taken to hotels or Airbnb's, particularly at odd times of the day and night.

A young person travelling with someone who doesn't appear to be a friend or family member.

A passenger who is too young to be travelling alone or in school uniform during school hours.

If you suspect something's not right, report it online, call 101, or 999 in an emergency. Quote Op Makesafe
