

What happens when I report a crime?

When you report a crime to Dorset Police a member of staff will be assigned to oversee the investigation. Information and evidence is gathered, entered onto a crime report and given a crime reference number. This information is analysed and any lines of enquiry are investigated in an effort to bring those responsible to justice.

Will I get an update?

If there are any lines of enquiry you will be regularly updated. Please remember, with any investigation, it takes time to gather information. Updates in relation to most cases will be provided by Dorset Victims' Bureau. This is a dedicated team actively working to keep you informed about progress with the investigation of your crime. In some cases it may be more appropriate for the officer in charge (OIC) to update you. This will be explained to you at the time of reporting your crime.

How do I contact the officer in charge (OIC) or the Victims' Bureau?

Just call Dorset Police on 101. Ask for the OIC if you have any additional information about your crime or you can call the Victims' Bureau directly on 01202 222799 if you would like to receive the latest update.

You can also make contact via email at: victimsbureau@dorset.pnn.police.uk or via our online enquiry form at www.dorset.police.uk

The Victim's Code

The impact of crime may vary and many people benefit from receiving some support and information to help them cope and recover. The Victims' Code is a statutory Government document which explains what support and information victims of crime – both people and businesses – can expect. The Victims' Code can be found on the Dorset Police website or at www.gov.uk/government/publications/the-code-of-practice-for-victims-of-crime

What is Restorative Justice?

Restorative Justice (RJ) is a process of bringing together those harmed by crime or conflict with those responsible for the harm, to find a positive way forward. If you want to participate and/or would like more information please refer to www.dorset.pcc.police.uk/working-in-partnership/restorative-justice or contact the Victims' Bureau.

What is a Victim Personal Statement (VPS)?

A VPS gives you an opportunity to explain, in your own words, how a crime has affected you whether physically, emotionally, financially or in some other way. You are entitled to make a VPS at the same time as giving a witness statement. If you would like to discuss a VPS further please contact the OIC of your crime. www.gov.uk/government/publications/victim-personal-statement

Can I get victims' of crime information in Easy Read?

Yes, please visit www.dorset.police.uk and click on the "victim of crime" link.

Where do I go for support?

If you need any support or wish to speak to someone about your experience, there is a list of useful contacts in this leaflet. Victim Support has been commissioned by the Dorset Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner to provide help and support to victims of crime in Dorset. Victim Support is not part of the police, the courts or any other criminal justice agency, they are an independent charity and are there to help victims of crime, their families, friends and anyone else affected across England and Wales recover from their ordeal. As they are an independent charity, you can talk to them whether or not you have reported the crime to the police and regardless of when the crime happened. Their services are free and available to everyone.

The trained volunteers at Victim Support offer:

- Someone to talk to in confidence
- Emotional support
- Practical help
- Information about Criminal Injuries compensation
- Information on police and court procedures
- Help dealing with other organisations

You can contact Victim Support locally on 0300 3030 163.
